Are you thinking of investing in real estate? Do you already own property and have found that you are experiencing surprises that you have not considered? Before you invest one dime—or another dime—learn from someone else's experiences. Anthony "Von" Mickle took an $8 an hour part time job and turned it into a multi-million dollar investment portfolio in thirty-six months. He feels you have the same success, and perhaps even more, if you take heed of the mistakes he made along the way. This book will introduce you to answers to questions that you didn't even realize you should ask. He'll discuss the topics that you will not find in some of the most famous best sellers.

Equipment Needed: Cordless Microphone, Presentation screen and projector, table to do book signings and a white board.

Workshop Cost - $5000
